

A Team Approach: from Diagnostics to Rehabilitation, Advanced Course

Time 2 days. Thursday 18 - Friday 19 May.

Place Blue Star Animal Hospital, Gothenburg, Sweden.

Focus group Veterinarians interested in orthopedic injuries and treatment. Physiotherapists, veterinary nurses and others involved in rehabilitation and would like to enhance their knowledge base in the field of rehabilitation of small animals. The course is presented by members of the orthopedic team.

Course Objective To provide an overview of diagnostics, treatment, and rehabilitation of orthopedic diseases and injuries such as shoulder instability, biceps tendinopathy, ligament injuries of the carpus and tarsal joints and flexor tendon injuries.

Course content

- Clinical gait analysis.
- Roles of each team member to improve patient quality of life.
- Evidence based rehabilitation.
- Structure and function of soft tissue and muscles. Examples of acute and repetitive injuries and tissue healing timeframes.
- Muscle, ligament and tendon injuries.
- Case presentations of patients with various injuries/diseases with treatment, rehabilitation, and orthotic assistance applied according to tissue healing and general principles of rehabilitation.
- Patient follow-up.
- Content of the course will be presented in the form of lectures and workshops.
- Course will be held in English.

Course fee 8.900 SEK (exkl. VAT) for members in VeTA-föreningen
10.400 SEK (exkl. VAT) for Non-members Payment by invoice
Please register early as the course has a limited number of participants.

Lecturer

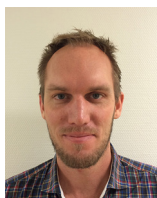

Gustaf Svensson

Licensed Veterinarian, graduate, Uppsala University 2001. Specialized competence, dogs and cats, 2008. Has been the head of surgery department at Blue Star Animal Hospital from 2005-2014. Since 2014, he has been the head veterinarian of Blue Star Animal Hospital. He is currently in Step 2 training for Surgical Specialty.

Lina Karlsson

Licensed Physiotherapist since 2007, graduate of Umeå University. Approved by the Swedish Dept of Agriculture to work with dogs, cats, and horses since 2010. Has been employed by Blue Star Animal Hospital since 2010 and has contributed to the design of the Orthopedic Center at the hospital.

Christoffer Diehl

Licensed Orthopedic Engineer, graduate of Jönköpings University 2004. He has been employed with Scandi Orthopedic since 2004 and developed its program for small animal orthotics at Blue Star Animal Hospital. He is actively involved in evidence based medicine and research.

Sandy Anderson

Licensed Physiotherapist, MSPT, Masters of Science, Physical Therapy, 2001, Regis University, Denver, CO, USA. Has worked with people-based orthopedic physical therapy since 1998 and with small animals since 2009 when she started working at Blue Star Animal Hospital. Approved by the Swedish Dept of Agriculture to work with dogs, cats, and horses since 2010.

Registration Latest 2017.04.03 at www.vetabolaget.se

Information about the course content Kicki Gustafsson Berger, tel +46 (0)220-290 95

Other questions VeTA-bolaget tel +46 (0)220-291 30, monday-friday between 12.30-14.00.

COURSE NR
523